Pamlico Sound is the field of operations of the Burnside fleet. Wilmington, Jan. 19 .- The following was received from Goldaboro, Saturday night at one o'clock: "There are 24 small steamers, and 16 sailing vessels inside the bar, and seven steamers outside, at Hatteras, and more are reported in Pamlico Sound."

The above is from an officer in Hyde county, and may be relied on.

Nashville, Jan. 20 .- The Federal movement up the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers must have been a feint. They fired a few shell from their gunboats into the woods below Fort Henry, but did not come within the range of our guns. The latest intelligence is that no federals are near. The federal gunboats came within three or four miles of Fort Donelson on Saturday, but returned after firing a few shots in the woods.

Richmond, Jan. 20. - The Martinsburg (Va.) "Republican" says it is reported that 7,000 federals are at Green Springs, fifteen miles from Romney, and that an attack was made on them on Thursday by the Confederates-the result is not
